One lucky reader will receive Milestone Kitchens units to the value of R50 000!

Our Kitchen Heroes competition, brought to you by Milestone Kitchens, was a roaring success last year – and we've decided to do it again! So if you're still dreaming of transforming your space with a stylish kitchen revamp, Milestone Kitchens will help you do just that with the units of your choice.

These days, people not only cook and eat in their kitchens but also use the space to socialise, entertain guests and even do homework. Getting the design and layout just right is a personal journey and the end result must work for the whole family.

Perhaps the kitchen of your dreams has a super-sized island in the middle, maybe you've always wanted a butler sink, or how about a beautiful dresser in the style and colour of your choice?

Send us your story and tell us why you need a makeover. If your entry is selected, the owner of Milestone Kitchens, Silvia Miles, will help you design your ideal space with units from their impressive range.

HOW TO ENTER

- Go to milestonekitchens.co.za and select the 'hero item' around which you'll design your kitchen from their range of products. Make a note of its name and the style you'd prefer.

A dynamic new hub for Milestone Kitchens!

This new factory outlet shop offers tons of inspiration – at discount prices!

Perfectly positioned in a leafy courtyard near coffee shops and creative boutiques, the Milestone Kitchens factory outlet shop at 44 Stanley in Milpark, Johannesburg “encapsulates what Milestone Kitchens is all about” says Silvia Miles, owner of Milestone Kitchens.

“The shop showcases a range of our kitchen furniture, storage units and other pieces set amongst curated décor items. Here, you can touch and feel our freestanding furniture. And best of all, you can purchase our products at discounted prices.”

Much like a home renovation, Silvia's process began with a blank canvas.

“The empty shop floor allowed me to unleash my creativity and design expertise to showcase the versatility of Milestone Kitchens in any space.

“Our freestanding kitchen furniture comes in three distinct styles and can be custom made to suit your specifications. Our range transforms spaces into practical – and beautiful – kitchens, dining areas and living rooms.”
